

I

(A) 1 still

(B) 2 body

(C) 3 along / 4 work

II

(1) - (d)

(2) - (c)

(3) - (c)

(4) - (a)

III

(1) have

(2) ○

(3) what

(4) it

IV

(1) - (c)

(2) - (d)

(3) - (b)

(4) - (a)

V

(1) - (b)

(2) - (c)

(3) - (d)

VI

問 1

(1) - 3

(2) - 3

(3) - 1

問 2

(4) The producers

(5) Packaged foods

問 3

(B)

問 4

3

問 5

4)

問 6

3)

問 7

塩の生産者たちは、たばこ関係の圧力団体を時には想起させる調子で、人間には好きなだけの量の塩を消費する権利があるのだと精力的に弁護している。

VII

(解答例①)

Doctors usually hesitate to tell their patients that they have cancer because the psychological shock usually results in their medical condition getting worse if they don't have the strongest willpower.

(解答例②)

Doctors find it hard to inform their patients of their cancer. The announcement is very likely to shock them and worsen their medical condition if they are not psychologically strong enough.